Thank You from the Bake Off Committee!

We simply just want to take this opportunity thank all of our Catholic Parishes of Millbury Family for making Our BAKE OFF event such a delicious success. We are quite certain that all of the baked goods deserved prizes, as evidenced by the guests quickly gathering them to take home for Super Bowl snacking. Yay Patriots! Thank you also to our judges, Fr. Dan and Deacon Ron for their valiant discernment in choosing the winners. THANK YOU also for all they do for the Catholic Parishes of Millbury.

Bake Off Thanks from Deacon Ron

To all the Parishioners of the Catholic Parishes of Millbury, those who were able to attend our Bake Off on Saturday night, and those who could not, thank you from the bottom of my heart. Kathy and I had a wonderful time. I still find it difficult to believe that so many people could keep such a secret for that long a time. I am blessed in so many ways, and one in particular is having been assigned here over 11 years ago, I found a home, I found a great many friends, I couldn't be happier. To the whole committee, thank you, thank you, thank you. You are all always in my prayers. God Bless, Deacon Ron

Now to continue our Story. Our fundraising started with Chicken BBQs, Donut Sunday's and Pancake Breakfasts. We did events with Helping Hands, the Girl Scouts, and Boy Scouts. For our youth program we sponsored a Sutton Soccer Team and formed a committee for a Free Throw Contest. As we grew over the first few years, we had our famous Tootsie Roll Drive to help support the Special Olympics and those with special needs. We also adopted a Grandparent from Haiti back in 2001 and have continued each year since. In March 2001, a desire to raise funds to be able to offer Scholarships directed toward students who attend Catholic Schools and Colleges was started.

Some time ago, our St. Vincent de Paul Society helped a lady with rent money and other bills. Recently, she came in and said that now that she was back on her feet, she wanted to give something in return to help somebody else out. She has a job in a bakery and so she donated a whole palette of Irish Soda bread to pay it forward so that others might eat, enjoy, and have hope.

"In the end, there are three things that last: faith, hope, and charity, these three...and the greatest of these is charity." (St. Paul)
